Mersey Waterfront - 'Another Place' and Albert Dock

Be one of the half million people who have seen Another Place by Anthony Gormley at Crosby Marina. But remember, Crosby beach is a non-bathing beach with areas of soft sand and mud and a risk of changing tides. Make sure you stay within 50 metres of the promenade at all tides and don't attempt to walk out to the furthest figures. You can see Crosby Coastal Path at www.sefton.gov.uk

Albert Dock has numerous top notch eateries dotted around the docks. We went to HA! HA! call 0151 707 7877 or visit hahaonline.co.uk. Find out about other bars and shops at Albert Dock by calling 0151 708 7334 or online at www.albertdock.com

The Tate Liverpool always has fantastic and often challenging exhibitions. Call 0151 702 7400 or visit their website for up to date exhibitions www.tate.org.uk/liverpool. Opening hours: Tues-Sun 10am - 5 pm. The gallery is closed Mondays. ## INFO

By car: A few brown tourist signs show you the way to 'Another Place' and there's plenty of free parking at Crosby Marina. It's Pay & Display at Albert Dock, which is a bit more liberally signposted.

By public transport: Merseyrail's North Line links most of the coastal towns and villages. Waterloo, the closest station to Crosby Marina, is just eight stops from Lime Street. When heading back to Albert Dock, alight at Moorfields and then catch the No 1 bus from Dale St, or alternatively you can walk, heading for Pier Head and the Three Graces and then follow the signs.
